A supper will be served by the ladies of the Episcopal Church on Thursday evening, April 22, at the Wright House from six to nine o'clock (local) with an elaborate menu. Twenty-five cents pays the bill. Everybody invited. The supper will be supplemented by an old fashioned social in the parlor where abundance of "pi" will be served.

Charles Fishbeck, chief of the Alma Fire Department has been invited to prepare and read a paper, "Does not the state association add to some extent to the prosperity and efficiency of the various fire departments of our state and should not the same be encouraged?" The meeting will be held in Detroit, May 19th and 20th.

The Township Board on Wednesday let the contract for a new iron bridge over Pine River. The structure will be one hundred and seventy feet long and built in two spans each seventy feet long, with center buttments. The price is $1000.00, $1000.00 of which is to be paid Jan. 15th, 1898, the remaining nine hundred on Jan. 15th, 1899. Ramsey & Company of Portland, who received the work, bid $100.00 more on the same thing one year ago. The bridge will be completed by July 1st.

The chances are good for the inauguration of a cereal coffee industry in Alma, known as the Standard Anti-Coffee Co. The physicians at the Sanitarium declare it to be the best of its kind ever submitted to that institution. For those people unable to drink coffee this preparation will be found a wholesome and efficient beverage. The Anti-Coffee can be had of B. C. Burton, Win Wilson, Ed. Kelly and L. H. Hayt, our local grocers. In preparing the drink a heaping teaspoon of the mixture is sufficient for each cup. Add boiling water and allow it to boil from ten to twenty minutes. Serve hot with cream and sugar. Should it be too strong add boiling water.
